7. PROCEDURES FOR REGISTERING CLAIMS OR COMPLAINTS

Procedures for the submission of claims and complaints are detailed in your policy and are important. If you have difficulties in determining the correct procedures, please contact Viva Cover. You are required to advise Viva Cover within a prescribed number of days of a loss, provide written details of the loss, provide proof in support of the claim, & any other details that may be required by Viva Cover. You may contact Viva Cover's Policy Holder Services department on 0860 861 111. In addition, the addresses of the Registrar of Short-Term Insurance, the Short-Term Ombud and the FAIS Ombud are provided should your complaint still not be satisfactorily resolved.

8. NAME, CLASS OR TYPE OF POLICY

Full details about the name, class and type of policy involved are reflected on your policy schedules and are also contained in the policy wording. Policy schedules should always be read in conjunction with the policy wording. Should you require any explanation about the terms, conditions, exclusions, provisions, premiums, excesses (or deductibles) or any other information, please contact Viva Cover for assistance.

9. EXTENT AND NATURE OF PREMIUM OBLIGATIONS

Your policy document reflects the premiums payable, the due date of payment and the frequency of payment (e.g. monthly or annually). When amendments are made to the policy, any additional or refund premium that may become due are also reflected on the policy schedules. All premiums are inclusive of Value Added Tax at the prescribed rate. The Administrator is authorised to accept premium payments on behalf of the Product Supplier, and you may make payment to the Administrator. This is also the case with monthly premiums by debit order.

10. CONSEQUENCES OF NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS

The due date for the payment is reflected on your policy schedule, renewal notice or premium advice as the case may be. Your payment should be made on or before the due date reflected to avoid the cancellation of the policy at midnight on the day of the due date.

11. FIRST AMOUNTS PAYABLE

It is important that you are aware of any amounts that you will be required to pay in the unfortunate event of a claim. Your policy schedule or wording contain the amounts that you pay as a portion of a claim and you Financial Services Provider or Product Supplier can assist you with any queries you have in this regard.

12. OTHER MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE

- (a) You must be informed of any material changes to the information referred to in paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4.
- (b) If any complaint to the Intermediary or insurer/UMA is not resolved to your satisfaction, you may submit your complaint to the FAIS Ombud.
- (c) Polygraph or similar tests are not obligatory, and claims may not be rejected solely on the basis of a failure of such a test.
- (d) If your premium is paid by debit order, the debit order must be in favour of either the Intermediary of the Product Supplier (insurer) and may not be transferred without your approval.
- (e) The Product Supplier (insurer) must give you 30' days' notice in writing of its intention to cancel your debit order.
- (f) The Product Supplier (insurer) and not the Intermediary must give reasons in writing for the rejection of any claim submitted by you.
- (g) The Product Supplier (insurer) must give you written notice of its intention to cancel your policy.
- (h) You are entitled to a copy of your policy free of charge.

13. WARNING

Complete all forms in ink.

- (a) Keep all documents you receive.
- (b) Make notes as to what is said to you.
- (c) Do not be pressured into buying the product.
- (d) Failure to provide correct or full relevant information may influence an insurer on any claims arising from your contract of insurance.

14. SHARING OF INSURANCE INFORMATION

Insurers share information with each other regarding policies and claims with a view to prevent fraudulent claims and obtain material information regarding the assessment of risks proposed for insurance. By reducing the incidents of fraud and assessing risks fairly, future premium increases may be limited. This is done in the public interest and in the interest of all current and potential policyholders.

The sharing of information includes but is not limited to information sharing via the Information Data Sharing System operated by Trans Union ITC on behalf of the South African Insurance Association. By the insurer accepting or renewing this insurance, you or any other person that is represented herein, gives consent to the said information being disclosed to any other insurance company or its agent.

You also similarly give consent to the sharing of information in regard to past insurance policies and claims that you have made. You also acknowledge that information provided by yourself or your representative may be verified against any legally recognized sources or databases. By insuring or renewing you insurance you hereby not only consent to such information sharing, but also waive any rights of confidentiality with regards to underwriting or claims information that you have provided or that has been provided by another person on your behalf.

In the event of a claim, the information you have supplied with your application together with the information you supply in relation to the claim, will be included on the system and made available to other Insurers participating in the Information Data Sharing System.

15. WAIVER OF RIGHTS

The General Code of Conduct stipulates that no financial services may request or induce in any manner a client to waive any right or provider benefit conferred on the client by/or in terms of any provisions Code, or recognize, accept or act on any such waiver by a client. Any of the said such waiver is null and void.
